Netherlands 26th-27th June 2025 Sitting at Jesus' feet

The challenge: (1) for the Dutch Church to rise up into the fullness of its calling, (2) for individuals to take their authority as men of God, (3) for the Church to stand in the gap for the Netherlands so its God-given destiny is fulfilled.

Thursday 26th

Session 1: Introductions/familiarisation/worship (10.00 am – 11.15 am) Caroline & Bernard

Session 2: Groundwork (11.45 am – 13.15 pm) David

Foundation of Spiritual warfare for today. Personality of Sin. Principalities and powers. Resisting too confrontational. Raising the level of combat.

Session 3: Clearing the decks (15.00 pm-16.15 pm) David

Changing the spiritual climate of the Netherlands by closing the doors of the past and opening up the prophetic doors for the future. (Giving them a goal / vision to go for.)

Session 4: Why nations matter: Philip (Showing them how it can be done)

God established them (Deuteronomy 32:8)
They exist at the end of time (Revelation 21:26, 22:2)
They are one of God's building blocks for society (family, clan, tribe, nation)
They are part of His plan for one man (Jesus) to bless all men, and one nation (Israel) to bless all nations
The Church as shepherd to the nation:
A nation is only as strong as the Church in that nation
Sheep without a shepherd will go astray and be lost
Jesus criticises blind guides and whitewashed tombs
The Old Testament prophets criticise the failures of spiritual leaders
Nations in the valley of decision:
Sheep and goats (Matthew 25:31-46, contrast ten virgins, talents)
What Israel-Gaza tells us about the season
Where we stand on God's end-time prophetic timeline
The urgency of the hour
National character and destiny:
Nations are distinct, like people
God has given them different redemptive gifts (Romans 12:6-8)
These gifts are reflected in culture
God speaks a destiny over us, and invites us to walk in it
Our authority in Christ:
To stand in the gap for our nation
To repent for what we have done wrong in the past
To proclaim God's Kingdom destinies = true prophecy
To guide (shepherd, disciple) the nation in the right path
Standing at the crossroads (16.30 pm – 18.00 pm)
Understanding the redemptive gifts of our nation
Jeremiah 6:16

Importance of history
Spiritual action replay of the past (Ecclesiastes 1:9)
Redemptive calling of the Netherlands – some pointers (see separate sheet)
Bilderbergers root of the empire spirit.

Break-out groups
What is God's calling on the Netherlands?
Areas for confession and repentance
Things that need to be done, undone, or re-done in the Spirit
How should the Dutch Church respond?

Session 5 (20.00 pm – 21.30 pm) Philip
Preparing to receive from God:
The only limit on His giving is our ability to receive
The same is true of His power
We can only walk together to the extent we agree
Agreeing with God, agreeing with each other
Agreeing with the Word, ways, and character of God
Blockages on our ability to receive: (No roots in Israel)
Taking back ground.
The enemy's excuse to occupy (Gaza)
Failing to build on secure foundations
Rebellion, pride, self-reliance
Removing blockages to our oneness in Christ:
The Jeremiah 1:10 mandate
England and the Netherlands (see separate sheet)
Time of confession and repentance England-Netherlands

Time of confession and repentance – the Netherlands (Church and nation)
Proclaiming, declaring, prophesying over the nation
Declarations

Session 2 (11.30 am – 1.00 pm)
Oneness. Living from the Blood covenant of Christ. David
Being doers of the Word as well as hearers only (James 1:22-25)
Listening for God's strategy and plan of action

Session 3 (14.00 pm – 15.30 pm)
What next?
Not man's plan, but God's
Time, place, people
